PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE (cont'd.)

Before you buy all of the groceries for this holiday season, consider signing up for eScrip at www.escrip.com, and by entering our #500000792. Two percent of your purchases at Safeway, Whole Foods, Lunardi, Draegers or Macy's can support our branch. How easy is that? Please do this today.

Remember if you have always wanted to be a part of the theater, an organizational meeting for our March production of Twelve Angry Women will be at Lynn Goodwin's home, phone 324-0143 on Wednesday, December 3, at 7 P.M. Maybe you have a friend who's interested in acting and might consider joining AAUW to be a part of this fun endeavor.

Our Public Policy Chair, Cynthia Savell, has had two back surgeries in November and has been unable to contact each of us personally. However she asks each of us to complete the "Every Member Survey" that is on our web site, www.aauw-da.org. It is at the bottom of the left hand banner and needs to be mailed or faxed by December 1. Help AAUW California in setting Public Policy Action priorities for the coming biennium.

There will no monthly coffee at Bagel Street since our Holiday Home Tour is on the second Friday this month. We will continue our regular coffee get-together on Friday, January 9, at 9:30 A.M. when I look forward to seeing you.

I hope that you are able to share this special time of year with loved ones. Enjoy a wonderful holiday season and a new year full of peace, joy and good health.

Tena Gallacher, President

YOUR EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION DOLLARS AT WORK

The Educational Foundation (EF) Northern and Southern California Luncheons are over and what a great success! Over 275 men and women attended this year's events. What a pleasure to hear the Fellows up close and personal. Their research and projects are awesome and their personal stories make you feel proud that you donate to the Educational Foundation. While listening to their stories we heard repeatedly how much they truly appreciated the fellowships and grants and how they made a difference in their lives.

The AAUW Educational Foundation is committed to breaking down educational and economic barriers so that all women have a fair chance. For more than a century, AAUW has advanced educational and professional opportunities for women nationally and globally-funding women pursuing advanced degrees, fostering girls' achievements and gender equity, and supporting women entering new or non-traditional careers.

As one of the world's premier sources of funding for women's education, AAUW provided a total of $4,452,200 in fellowships and grants to 271 recipients for the 2008-2009 academic year.

As you can see, AAUW is still one of the largest sources of funding exclusively for graduate women. You can be proud that California continues to be the top contributor to EF.

EXPANDING YOUR HORIZONS IS COMING

SAVE THE DATE: Saturday, February 28, 2009

We're getting ready for another Expanding Your Horizons day for our junior high girls. This is the annual science and math careers fair day organized by a team of women at Lawrence Livermore and Sandia Labs. Pat and I have just returned from one of the planning meetings and wish to share this information with you.

Date: Saturday, February 28, 2009 (a month earlier this year)
Location: Diablo Valley College, San Ramon (same site as last year)
Workshops: 15 classes (similar topics as last year)
Hours: Morning Session 9:00 to 11:00, Afternoon Session 12:30 to 2:30

If you are a new member to our branch, this is a great event with which to "get your feet wet" in one of our community outreach programs. If you are a seasoned veteran, we still want to hear from you. Pick a morning or afternoon session, and let us know you can volunteer. Please contact me at dtporter@comcast.net or Pat at paderensis@comcast.net with the good news.

BE A STAR

BE PART OF AAUW'S PRODUCTION OF TWELVE ANGRY WOMEN

Have you ever been in a play? Being a carrot in a kindergarten play counts. So does singing in the chorus of your high school musical. Whether you are a veteran actor or have never set foot on stage, AAUW invites you to discover and share your talents in AAUW's production of Twelve Angry Women, a fundraiser for our Legal Advocacy Fund that will be performed in March.

Characters are meek, bold, knowledgeable, brassy, explosive, short-sighted, irate, infuriating, and sometimes surprisingly insightful and perceptive. Part of the fun of acting is bringing your character to life, moment by moment. Using the principles of support, trust, cooperation, and building, I will help you discover what drives your character. Find out what she wants, what she can do to get what she wants, and what is in her way.

I originally directed Twelve Angry Jurors at San Ramon High School in 1973. Since then, I've directed over 75 other plays and musicals in high school, college and community theatre. The actors I work with are often amazed at how convincing they can be and how much they grow, as they inhabit a fictitious character's life.

Twelve Angry Women is a remake of Reginald Rose's 1957 teleplay, Twelve Angry Men, in which 12 jurors must decide the fate of a young man accused of killing his father. I never serve on a jury without remembering the way the twelve people in his play interacted.

AAUW will hold an organizational meeting on Wednesday, December 3, at 7:00 p.m. at my home at 417 Old Orchard Ct., Danville. If you need additional information or want to be sure you are called about the meeting, please contact producer Susan Terzuoli at 820-9071, susanterz@hotmail.com or director B. Lynn Goodwin at 324-0143, Lgood67334@comcast.net. If guest parking is full, please park on the street.

ART & GARDEN MISSION MURALS TOUR

The Art and Garden group was on the go again. This time it was to view the murals in San Francisco's Mission District on a late Indian summer day in October. The names of muralists who come to mind are usually the male triad—Diego Rivera, José Orozco and David Siqueiros. But many of the murals in the Mission and around San Francisco have been painted by Precita Eyes including the only one that exists in a

McDonald restaurant located at 24th and Mission. Precita Eyes is a cooperative of mostly women who expanded the subject matter of murals from political concerns to community action. This is some of the fascinating facts we learned during the tour. For a photo essay of our trip, you can click this link

GREAT DECISIONS

Great Decisions is just around the corner! This annual discussion group meets for eight weeks during February and March to discuss topics pertaining to foreign affairs. The Danville-Alamo AAUW Great Decisions Groups are open to all members and their guests. There is one day and one evening session each week; men are invited to attend the evening program.

Great Decisions is America's longest standing global affairs education program. A Great Decisions discussion group is composed of interested individuals who want an opportunity to learn and participate in the foreign policy decision-making process.

Great Decisions, the centerpiece of the longest-running civic education program in the United States devoted to foreign affairs, empowers readers to discuss global issues shaping U.S. foreign policy and the world. The briefing book provides historical background, current U.S. policy and alternative policy options, informative maps and detailed graphs, suggested readings and resources, as well as opinion ballots for each topic. The true focus of the discussion group is the critical examination of all issues and opinions, each recognized as equally valid. Consensus is not a goal.

Published annually by the Foreign Policy Association, the Great Decisions briefing book features impartial, thought-provoking analyses on eight issues of concern to U.S. policymakers today. The 2009 edition features articles on U.S. and rising powers, Afghanistan/Pakistan, Energy & the global economy, The Arctic, Egypt in the 21st Century, Global food supply, Cuba after Castro, and Universal human rights.

Opinion ballots are tabulated and the results presented in the National Opinion Ballot Report, a representative survey of readers' views on the eight Great Decisions topics. The Report is made available to members of Congress, the White House, the media, concerned citizens and our readers.

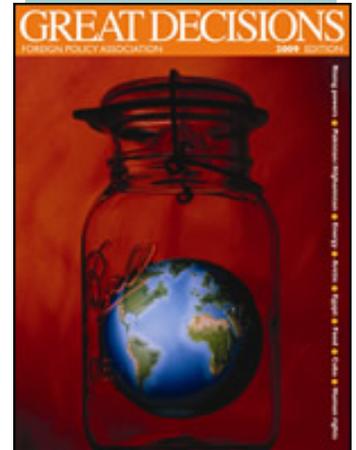

Join our group by emailing Joan Ward at jaward@pacbell.net, Martha Slavin at marthaslavin@sbcglobal.net, or Roseann Krane at rkrane@yahoo.com to be put on the list. We have two groups: Daytime group meets on Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. beginning February 3 and the evening group meets on Mondays at 7:30 p.m. starting on February 2. Each meets once a week for eight weeks in February and March.
