

Vineyard Stroll, Sipping and Supporting for AAUW College Scholarships Friday, April 22, from 4-7 pm

Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women invites you to help us raise money for one of our key programs: Scholarships for women and girls in the San Ramon Valley.

This is an opportunity to support women and girls, while enjoying an evening in a local vineyard with fine friends, appetizers and wine.

Your contribution will be used entirely for scholarships for college women from the San Ramon Valley, and includes:

- Parking at the Town Lot at the Museum of San Ramon Valley, with continuous courtesy shuttle to and from the event from 3:45-7:30. There will be no parking at the event site.
- Wine tasting of current vintages from Sky Terrace Vineyards
- “Springtime Sparklers” Quilt by Mary Mix and Garden basket raffle opportunities
- Gourmet appetizers and sweets from the members of DAW-AAUW

Tickets are $40. Space is limited, so order your tickets SOON by clicking HERE or purchase (check or cash only) at East Bay Flower Company in the Danville Livery
