POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES HANDBOOK, BYLAWS, AND STANDING RULES REVIEW

Following are recommendations for timing and approvals of Policies and Procedures and Bylaws reviews.

1. The Policies and Procedures Handbook shall be reviewed in the odd numbered years as determined by the year on July 1, by a board committee appointed by the president and chaired by the parliamentarian.
2. The Bylaws and Standing Rules shall be reviewed in the even numbered years as determined by the date on July 1, by a board committee appointed by the president and chaired by the parliamentarian. Proposed amendments to the Bylaws must be sent to the appropriate representative on the AAUW-CA Bylaws Committee for approval before being submitted to the branch membership for approval.
3. The Policies and Procedures Handbook can be amended or revised by a majority vote of the Board when a quorum is present, as defined in the Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch Bylaws.
4. Any policy or procedure, bylaw, or standing rule approved by the board must be added as an addendum to the master copy of the Policies and Procedures Handbook, Bylaws, and Standing Rules within 30 days. Any revision to an existing policy or procedure approved by the board must be added as an addendum to the master copy of the Policies and Procedures Handbook and emailed by the parliamentarian to all board members within 30 days. There will be a full review incorporating the addendums in each odd-numbered year for the Policies and Procedures Handbook and a full review of the Bylaws and Standing Rules in the even-numbered years as determined by the year on July 1.
5. Newly published and distributed versions of the Policies and Procedures Handbook, Bylaws, and Standing Rules must include the approval date. The master copy of the Handbook, Bylaws, and Standing Rules shall be maintained by the secretary, posted on the branch website, and distributed by e-mail to all members requesting a copy. It will be sent via the US Postal Service mail to any member on the Advocate paper mail list requesting a copy.

BYLAWS AND STANDING RULES, POLICIES AND PROCEDURES COMMITTEES

1. The parliamentarian will chair a committee of 3 to 5 members, appointed by the president in the fall, to review, revise and/or amend the Policies and Procedures Handbook in the odd numbered years and the Bylaw/Standing Rules in the even numbered year.
2. This committee shall meet as often as agreed upon by committee members in order to complete a review with recommended revisions by March of the following year.
3. These recommendations will be presented to the Board and general membership as specified in the preceding section, Policies and Procedures Handbook and Bylaws/Standing Rules Review.

AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch

BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMPOSITION

Board membership is as defined in the Bylaws. Any member of AAUW is welcome to attend board meetings.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Read and be familiar with the Bylaws and this Policies and Procedures Handbook, including Board of Directors Job Descriptions included in this handbook.
2. Read and sign the Conflict-of-Interest Policy statement affirming they have received, read and understand the policy, agree to comply with the policy and understand that the organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.
3. Carry on the business of the branch in conformity with the AAUW Danville-Alamo Walnut Creek Branch Bylaws, Standing Rules, and Policies and Procedures.
4. Hold the general power to administer the affairs of the branch between branch meetings and report its actions to the branch.
5. Be responsible to the members of the branch. No board action shall conflict with action taken by the branch membership.
6. Submit the annual budget to the branch membership for approval at the September Membership Brunch.
7. Establish standing and special committees.
8. Any branch member may bring a proposal to the board for discussion and action at its next regular meeting by requesting the president to include the proposal as an agenda item at least 4 (four) days before the agenda is published. If the member wishes to appear at the board meeting to speak to the proposal, that request should be included also.
9. Attend all board meetings and general meetings. Notify the president if unable to attend. Send a report if necessary.
10. Attend as many conventions, conferences, district meetings, workshops, etc. as possible.
11. Report to the board on activities and concerns of the position.
12. Spend funds that have been included in the budget. Request authorization from the board for additional expenses and/or confirm authorization with the treasurer.
13. Consult with the president on questions that arise pertaining to branch activities, procedures and policies.
14. Submit promptly all reports and other information required by the AAUW or AAUW-CA officers. Give a copy of all reports to the president and put a copy in the position experience binder.
15. Set advertising rates for the newsletter and the directory based upon the recommendations of the advertising sales manager.
16. Give newsletter material to the editor by the deadline.
17. Review and approve budget and expenses recommended by standing and special committees.
18. Adhere to the most current version of "Records Management Guidelines for States and Branches", at parties is possible. They may wish to transmit particularly confidential or sensitive information by regular mail instead.

2. Confidential material (rosters and personal contact information) acquired during service on behalf of the branch shall not be used for personal advantage or shared with any other group, organization or business.
3. Written permission must be obtained and filed before publishing personal contact information of any kind in branch communications or providing contact information to coalition or partnership organizations. Written permission will remain in effect until any subsequent written direction is received changing that permission.
4. The nomination process and any written documentation is confidential and to be destroyed after elections.
5. Branch fundraising award processes (Local Scholarship and Tech Trek) and any written documentation are confidential and to be destroyed after awarded, except where record retention is required per the most current version of “Records Management Guidelines for States and Branches”, at <https://www.aauw.org/app/uploads/2020/04/Records-Management-Manual-for-AAUW-States-and-Branched.pdf>.

MEMORIAL GIFTS

1. Upon the death of an active member, a memorial gift may be made with approval of the board.
2. Funds for the gift shall be taken from the general fund and the amount shall not exceed $50 unless board approval is provided.

THANK-YOU GIFTS

1. Thank-you gifts or donations to an AAUW Fund of the recipient’s choice may be given to AAUW members in lieu of honorariums for general meeting presentations. AAUW members may not receive honorariums.
2. Thank-you gifts may be given to AAUW members in recognition of extraordinary support of branch activities at the discretion of one or more board members.
3. Thank-you gifts may be provided to our Fundraiser donors, non-member docents at our tours, and other non-members who significantly support our branch mission at the discretion of the tour chair(s).
4. Thank-you gifts and donations must be reviewed in advance in board meetings to determine any concerns; however a board vote for approval is not required. Amounts must fall within the budget for the board position providing the gift, or extra money for them may be provided with board approval.

CALIFORNIA NAMED GIFT HONOREE

1. Any branch member may nominate and submit for board approval the name of a member for California Named Gift Honoree.
2. The nomination must be approved by the Board and submitted to AAUW-California by Feb. 15. The Honoree is then selected by the AAUW-CA Board of Directors.
3. The State Named Gift Honoree Form is located at

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES HANDBOOK INCLUDING JOB DESCRIPTIONS

AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch

<https://www.aauw-ca.org/named-gift-honorees/>.

AAUW FUNDS HONOREES

1. The AAUW Funds VP will convene a Committee to recommend Branch Named Gift Honoree(s) to the board for approval before the AAUW-CA submission deadline in February. Approval is also needed if the committee recommends that there be no honorees for the year.
2. Criteria for honorees
 - a. Honorees should be limited to four members each year, regardless of branch contributions to AAUW Funds.
 - b. Consideration should be limited to extraordinary contributions made during the current or past year that go beyond the expected responsibilities for committee and board positions.
3. If a nominated honoree is a sitting board member, other board members may vote outside of a board meeting per Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch By-Laws Article XI Section 5, Voting Between Meetings.

FUNDRAISING

1. The branch will raise funds for the following:
 - a. AAUW Funds 501(c) 3: Refer to the AAUW Funds Vice President Job Responsibilities for specific guidelines. Donations to AAUW Funds are tax-deductible.
 - b. Local Scholarships: Refer to the Local Scholarship Chair Job Responsibilities for specific guidelines. Donations to the branch for Local Scholarships are not tax-deductible to the donor unless paid directly to AAUW-CA SPF with the notation DAW Local Scholarship in the memo line of the check, as long as the branch remains a 501(c)(4) entity. Contributions must be kept separate from other funds. If the Branch is granted 501(c)(3) status, donations to the branch will be tax-deductible
 - c. Tech Trek: Refer to the Tech Trek Chair Job Responsibilities for specific guidelines. Donations to Tech Trek may be made to the branch or to the AAUW- CA Special Projects Fund (SPF). Donations to Tech Trek are tax-deductible if the check is made payable to “AAUW-CA-SPF” and sent to the branch Tech Trek chair. (“Tech Trek Danville-Alamo-WC branch” should be noted in the memo line.) If the Branch is granted 501(c)(3) status, donations to the branch will be tax-deductible to the donor.
2. All fundraising publicity must state clearly for what purpose the money is being raised and what percentage or amount, if any, is tax exempt (this amount would be tax deductible).
3. Raffles may be held for fund-raising if all state requirements are met by the treasurer on time, including an annual permit.
4. All donations greater than or equal to $250 are required by the IRS to be acknowledged in writing, including the appropriate Tax ID #.
 - a. Tech Trek and Local Scholarship SPF sends acknowledgement letters to all donors for amounts equal to or greater than $250.
 - b. The practice of the Tech Trek and the Local Scholarship Chairs is to send donation acknowledgement

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES HANDBOOK INCLUDING JOB DESCRIPTIONS

AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch

(thank-you) letters to all donors, regardless of the amount.

- c. If the branch is granted 501(c)(3) status, our general practice will be to send written acknowledgement for all donations of any amount.

MEETINGS/PROGRAMS/INTEREST GROUPS

1. Prospective members may attend up to three interest groups meetings per year before being asked to join. An exception is made for spouses and significant others in couples' groups and Great Decisions.
2. No general or special meeting will be held on days of the following major religious observances: Easter, Passover, Rosh Hashanah (two days), Yom Kippur, Hanukkah, Christmas or major holidays of significant religious or ethnic groups within the relevant geographic area of the branch. All Jewish holidays begin at sundown the day before. <https://www.aauw.org/resources/member/governance-tools/aauws-diversity-statement/>
3. Branch interest group meetings will be rescheduled when they are in conflict with branch general meetings.
4. All branch general meetings, special meetings and events will be accessible to persons with disabilities. For interest groups and other meetings held in private homes, members will attempt to accommodate persons with disabilities.
5. Traditional dates of interest group meetings will take precedence over proposed meeting dates of new interest groups.
6. With the approval of the Board of Directors, any member may form a new interest group provided that it is open to all members and its meetings will not conflict with scheduled branch meetings.
7. Interest groups are open to all members. Participation may be limited due to venue constraints. Participation will be on a space available basis.
8. Interest groups wishing to represent our branch or AAUW must be pre-approved by the board. Refer to the Public Policy and Branch Representation section of this document.

PUBLIC POLICY AND BRANCH REPRESENTATION

1. An official branch representative at any AAUW or non-AAUW conference must be pre-approved by the board.
2. Individuals or groups wishing to represent our branch or AAUW at an event or other type of meeting must present a proposal and receive approval from the board.
3. Individuals or groups wishing to provide community service, public education and/or affect public policy as representative(s) of our branch or AAUW must present a proposal and receive approval from the board.
4. Any member identifying themselves as an AAUW member in a public forum or publication must follow Article III Use of Name as detailed in the Bylaws.

OUTSIDE ORGANIZATIONS

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES HANDBOOK INCLUDING JOB DESCRIPTIONS

AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch

1. No outside organization will be allowed to promote its activities or sell anything at branch meetings, branch fundraisers, or other branch activities without Board approval.
2. The branch directory may not be made available to non-members or outside organizations. Information in the AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch Directory may not be sold, traded, transmitted, or otherwise disseminated in whole or in part, to any third party without express prior written approval of AAUW Danville- Alamo-Walnut Creek.
3. With the exception of paid advertising and project sponsors, information concerning any organization other than AAUW shall not be published in the monthly newsletter or on the branch website without board approval.
4. When joining with other organizations in a coalition or joint activity, the branch must retain control of the use of the name AAUW. The objectives of the coalition must not be in conflict with the AAUW Mission Statement. Financial support can include dues or a commitment to participate in the on-going financial support of the common objective. The decision to join the coalition and the amount of financial support must be approved by the board.

PUBLICATIONS

1. All publications of the branch shall be in accord with the AAUW “Use of Name” bylaw, which provides that any such publication shall not be in conflict with the policies and programs of AAUW and AAUW-CA.
2. Content of the branch newsletter and website shall be reviewed and approved by the president.

BUDGET/FINANCE

1. The Budget Committee shall consist of the treasurer as chair, the president, the membership vice president, the program vice president, and others if needed.
2. The proposed budget must be presented to the Board for approval at least two weeks prior to the first general meeting of the fiscal year. It must be published in the newsletter at least 14 days before the general meeting at which it must be approved by the membership.
3. The Budget Committee shall meet in July at the call of the treasurer to review the prior year’s results and to create the budget to be submitted to the Board for approval fourteen or more days prior to the Membership Brunch in September.
4. Each officer, elected or appointed, having budget funds, is responsible for approval of the bills and vouchers for her/his committee and for keeping a current account of funds remaining in her/his budget. The treasurer shall issue checks only after such approval of vouchers and bills.
5. Branch financial records, including AAUW Funds records, must be reviewed bi-annually by the Financial Review Committee. Refer to the Financial Review Committee and Financial Review Process sections of this document.
6. A permanent reserve shall be determined by the Board at the recommendation of the Budget Committee to cover Tech Trek, Local Scholarships, and necessary board expenses. This reserve shall be approved and recorded as part of the annual budget. The board must be notified as early as possible if there is danger of the reserve falling below the established base reserve amount. At no time shall the reserve fall below the established base reserve amount without board approval. Should the base amount fall below the established base, an amount sufficient to bring the reserve up to base level shall be a budget item in the next year's budget.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES HANDBOOK INCLUDING JOB DESCRIPTIONS

7. Honoraria or speaker's fees for programs are set by the Program Committee, financed from the program budget, and are not to exceed $200 without prior board approval. Honoraria or speaker's fees for the Membership Brunch are set by the Membership Committee, financed from the membership budget, and are not to exceed $200 without prior board approval. Refer to the AAUW-CA website, How to Request an AAUW Funds Speaker at <https://www.aauw-ca.org/request-aauw-fund-speaker/> for speaker's fee and other expense guidelines for programs featuring AAUW Funds Fellows. Tech Trek and Local Scholarship recipients may have meal costs paid from their respective budgets.
8. Any single expenditure over $1,000 must include two authorized signatures on the check.
9. Funds being transferred by the treasurer to or from savings accounts and PayPal need not be approved. All transfers and payments must be made by check and included in the following month's treasurer's report. Excess funds, with the exception of Tech Trek, Local Scholarship, and Dues Assistance Fund should go to the branch general fund.
10. All excess expenses must be approved by the president before they are incurred. If excess expenses exceed $250, they must be approved by the board before they are incurred. Approved excess expenses should be paid from the branch general fund.
11. Any member requesting reimbursement for branch expenses must complete and submit the appropriate voucher as provided by the treasurer (available on the branch website) along with the applicable receipts.
12. Any member submitting checks for deposit must complete the appropriate "deposit form" (available on the branch website), as provided by the treasurer.
13. All documentation must adhere to the most current version of "Records Management Guidelines for States and Branches", at <https://www.aauw.org/app/uploads/2020/04/Records-Management-Manual-for-AAUW-States-and-Branche.pdf>.

FINANCIAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

1. A financial review of the treasurer's materials and information will be conducted twice per year by a Financial Review Committee appointed by the President(s).
2. The committee includes three or four members-at-large (one designated chair). It is recommended that the president-elect and a previous year's treasurer be part of the committee. At least one of the members should have some financial expertise or background. The Committee will choose its Chair among themselves. The outgoing treasurer is not considered a member of the committee, but will cooperate with the reviews as requested by the committee.
3. The July financial review shall cover the previous fiscal year, July 1 – June 30, after the treasurer has closed the year's books.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES HANDBOOK INCLUDING JOB DESCRIPTIONS

AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch

4. The midyear financial review will occur in January and cover the first half of the current fiscal year, July 1 – December 31.
5. The committee will produce a Branch Financial Review Report, which will include the date of the review, attendees, a summary of findings, general notes and comments, and recommendations for the next fiscal year.
6. If significant problems are encountered, the Executive Committee will determine if a professional audit is required. A professional audit will identify any problems and protect the integrity of our branch and treasurer. An auditor does not need to be paid in order to provide a service to the branch.
7. The committee will follow current Financial Review guidelines provided in the Branch and State Finance Toolkit, page 16, located at <https://www.aauw-ca.org/documents/2020/05/aauw-finance-toolkit.pdf/>

AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch

FINANCIAL REVIEW PROCESS

1. The chair will call meetings convenient to committee members after consulting with the treasurer as to when the materials will be ready for each review.
2. The committee will:
 - a. Focus on branch financial transactions associated with programs, membership administration, AAUW Funds, and other fundraisers.
 - b. Review bank statements (checking and savings), expense receipts/vouchers, and QuickBooks and/or other bank account reconciliation reports.
 - c. Question the treasurer about the Profit and Loss Summary and Balance Sheet Reports for understanding. Also determine if recommendations from last year's financial audit have been implemented.
 - d. Ensure that a complete and updated Branch Asset Inventory is available in the treasurer's binder and on the DAW AAUW website. This document must accompany the End-of-Year Financial Review.
 - e. Ensure that tax returns were filed on time. They do not need to be reviewed.
3. Recommendations for financial process improvements for the treasurer and branch will be identified. (Chair usually has this responsibility.)
4. Reports will compile committee actions, findings, and recommendations. Copies of the AAUW Funds financial statement, Branch Asset Inventory, Branch Profit and Loss Statement, and Branch Balance Sheet will be attached.
5. The committee chairperson will complete the Branch Financial Review Report and have it reviewed, approved, and signed by committee members prior to its issuance by e-mail, with attachments, to the Branch President(s). Committee member signatures are not required on soft-copy reports.
6. The branch President(s) will e-mail the report and its attachments to board members with the board meeting agendas for September and February.
7. These reports shall be reviewed and accepted by the board in the September and February board meetings. Reports may be accepted with changes as identified by the board.
8. Digital copies of the reports with committee signatures and attachments will be retained by the Treasurer in the digital files archive for the fiscal year and per current version of "Records Management Guidelines for States and Branches", <https://www.aauw.org/app/uploads/2020/04/Records-Management-Manual-for-AAUW-States-and-Branches.pdf>.

REIMBURSEMENT

1. AAUW- CA and National Conventions
 - a. A sum of money determined by the Budget Committee will be budgeted annually and used only by Executive Committee member(s) to defray the cost of registration, convention hotel room, travel and meals for the convention attended.
 - b. If any portion of convention funds is not used, it is strongly recommended that the budget committee add these funds to the next year's convention budget allocation, making more money available for reimbursement.
2. Inter-branch Council (IBC) and Other AAUW Conferences
 - a. Registration for AAUW conferences may be reimbursed for the president or her/his representative and for those board members who wish to attend and have board approval for reimbursement.
 - b. The president or her/his representative may be reimbursed at the current AAUW California rate for mileage to and from AAUW conferences.
 - c. Any member attending an event as an official representative of the branch may be reimbursed for meals and for mileage at the current AAUW-CA rate. When more than one board member represents the branch, the reimbursement available may be split equally between them.
 - d. Reimbursement for conferences is dependent upon budget money availability. Refer to the Budget/Finance section of this document for approvals needed for expense over-runs.
3. Voucher Submission
 - a. Vouchers for reimbursement should be submitted to the treasurer within 30 days of the date the expense was incurred, with the exception of telephone expenses.
 - b. Receipts must accompany the voucher. IRS also requires the customer copy of airline tickets.

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

1. The branch may not contribute money or anything of material value to candidates or political parties for partisan or non- partisan elective office.
2. The branch may not accept paid political announcements for inclusion in AAUW publications.

general election.

- c. A candidate forum may proceed only if at least two candidates and/or their surrogates have accepted the invitation.
 - d. DAW AAUW must make clear to forum attendees and in pre-publicity and post-publicity, if applicable, that other candidates or parties were invited to participate, naming names and giving reason(s) for nonparticipation, per invitee quotation.
 - i) If no reason is given for nonparticipation, then the branch should state such to attendees and in pre-publicity, if applicable.
 - ii) It is critical to avoid the semblance of the the branch as taking a partisan stance by omission or commission.
2. Speeches by Elected Officials Running for Office
- a. DAW AAUW may invite a public official who is also a candidate in an election to speak on a subject pertaining to the incumbent's duties as a public official, as long as the incumbent does not discuss his or her candidacy for public office and does not use campaign funds to underwrite their appearance.
 - b. DAW AAUW may not invite a declared candidate in an election to speak at a meeting on her/his candidacy for future public office.
 - c. DAW AAUW may invite a declared candidate in an election to speak at a meeting on a subject of particular expertise, as long as the candidate does not discuss his or her candidacy for public office and does not use campaign funds to underwrite their appearance.

Candidates for Nonpartisan Elective Office

1. Before a nonpartisan election, DAW AAUW may have candidate forums to which all candidates in that election are invited.

Candidate Questionnaires

1. All candidates running for the office(s) to be covered in a candidate questionnaire must have the opportunity to participate.
2. All candidate responses received should be signed by the candidate. Responses must be printed in their entirety up to the specified word limit in any publication of responses to the questionnaire.
3. The publication of responses should include the names of all candidates to whom the questionnaire was sent, but publication may proceed even if all candidates do not respond by the appointed deadline.

ELECTIONS ACTIVITIES OF INDIVIDUAL AAUW MEMBERS

1. An individual member may endorse, as a private citizen, candidates for partisan elective office;

AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch

contribute their own money or anything of value to such candidate(s); and organize for the purpose of supporting such candidate(s); but such endorsement, contribution, or organization cannot utilize the name of AAUW.

2. Any DAW AAUW leader who is actively involved in a candidate's campaign should avoid any involvement of the branch in activities.
3. As a candidate for any office, an individual member may state their AAUW membership as long as they are not opposing an AAUW program or policy. Stating one's AAUW membership while opposing AAUW positions violates the AAUW Use of Name Policy (see AAUW Bylaws, Article III). In the absence of official endorsement by AAUW (for appointive or nonpartisan elective office), such a statement of AAUW membership should not be construed to imply endorsement.

LEGISLATION POLICIES

Members and the branch are strongly encouraged to support at local, state, and national levels measures that implement the AAUW Public Policy Priorities and principles of AAUW and AAUW affiliates. Members and/or the branch may choose not to support such measures, but they may not use the name of AAUW in public opposition to those measures. Established procedures may be used to make changes in the AAUW Public Policy Priorities.

1. AAUW is a non-partisan organization.
2. The branch may choose to endorse or take no position on legislative bills supporting AAUW public policy priorities. The branch may not elect to oppose measures supporting AAUW public policy priorities.
3. To receive the endorsement of the branch, a legislative bill must be in accord with the Mission Statement, public policy priorities and guidelines of AAUW, AAUW-CA and the branch on issues that may be affected by their office.
4. To receive the endorsement of the branch, a legislative bill must be in accord with the Mission Statement, public policy priorities and guidelines of AAUW, AAUW-CA and the branch on issues that may be affected by their office.

ENDORSEMENT PROCEDURE FOR A LEGISLATIVE BILL

1. Any branch member may submit recommendations for a legislative bill endorsement to the board.
2. Board approval is required for endorsement of a legislative bill and endorsement shall be in its name.

Local Scholarship Fundraising and Distribution Guidelines

1. Scholarship Fundraising & Distribution
 - a. Local Scholarship funds will be raised primarily from branch fundraising events such as the branch Garden Tour. The net income after expenses will be shared between Local Scholarships, Tech Trek, and AAUW Funds, as allocated by the board. Any additional contributions designated specifically to local scholarships will be deposited directly to the Local Scholarship SPF or to the DAW Branch Local Scholarship sub-account, as appropriate.
 - b. Based on Local Scholarship Committee recommendations, the Board sets the guidelines for the total dollar amount available for all scholarships that can be awarded in a given year and sets the minimum amount that can be awarded to an individual candidate. In all cases, the minimum award for a Local Scholarship is $2,000.
 - c. Within those guidelines, the Local Scholarship Committee has the discretion to determine the number of scholarships to be awarded and the amount of those Local Scholarships, with final board approval.
 - d. All proceeds raised from the Quilt drawing will be used exclusively to fund an honorary Creative Endeavors scholarship to be added to one of the awarded Local Scholarship recipients studying in a visual arts field. The Creative Endeavors scholarship will be in an amount equal to the net proceeds from the Quilt Drawing. If there is no qualified candidate in a given year for the Creative Endeavors Scholarship, the Quilt Proceeds will be added to the funds awarded as Local Scholarships for that year.
 - e. Any contributions designated specifically to the Jane Trittipio Scholarship must be used exclusively for a Local Scholarship recipient having met the criteria for that particular scholarship. Any funds contributed to the Jane Trittipio scholarship would be in addition to dollar guidelines set by the board

The letters should be received by the date specified on the Letter of Recommendation form.
15. Recipients will be awarded a scholarship at or above the minimum amount specified on the Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek branch website for current year.
16. Scholarship payments will be made in a lump sum no later than June 30 following notification of award. Upon receipt of proof of enrollment, checks may be either presented in person to recipient or designate, or mailed to recipient's home address by certified mail. Checks will be made payable directly to the student.
17. Recipients are required to notify the AAUW Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek branch of any changes in address, school enrollment/planned enrollment, or other relevant information that might affect selection and receiving a scholarship prior to the award being granted or the beginning of the academic period.
18. Scholarship recipients will be contacted in January following their award to provide evidence (e.g., unofficial transcript or screenshot of grade report) that shows they completed the fall term as planned and to submit a short paragraph indicating how the scholarship was used to help them achieve their academic goals. If the recipient has not completed the planned course work by January, DAW AAUW will take all reasonable and appropriate steps to recover the funds.
19. Use of scholarship funds are intended for educational pursuits.
20. Recipients will be awarded a scholarship on a one-time only basis and are not renewable.
21. Applicants not previously selected for a scholarship may reapply in a subsequent year, as long as they meet all other eligibility criteria for the year in which they are applying.
22. All applicants agree to accept the decision as final.
23. The Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek branch reserves the right to review the conditions and procedures of this scholarship program and to make changes at any time, including termination of the program.
